 Defendant

After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that these facts require that the defendant be detained pending trial.

Part I – Findings of Fact

- ____ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been convicted of ____ a federal offense ____ a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed – that is

- ____ (4) Findings (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the safety of another person or the community. I further find that defendant has not rebutted that presumption.

Alternative Findings (A)

Alternative Findings (B)

- ____ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- ✓ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II – Statement of the Reasons for Detention

I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by ✓ clear and convincing evidence ____ a preponderance of the evidence that:

defendant is an 18-year-old man who has never worked and has no assets. He has a daily drug habit and has fathered two children, whom he is not supporting. His juvenile record dates back to age 11 and continued through age 18. One month after being released from juvenile court proceedings, he committed second-degree home invasion, possession of crack cocaine, and fleeing and eluding officers. One month after being released from his sentence on those adult convictions, he was arrested on the instant drug and firearms offenses. Defendant is incorrigible and has shown no ability to conform his conduct to the requirements of law.

Part III – Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
